- 44. The Chair shall preside as the Chair of every General Meeting. If the Chair is unable or not willing to act as Chair, the Directors present shall choose one of their number to be Chair for the meeting unless or until the Chair shall be present, in a position, and willing to preside at the meeting.
- 45. A Director and a Club shall, notwithstanding that they are not a Member, representing a Member or the proxy of a Member, be entitled to attend and speak at any General Meeting. The Chair of the meeting may permit other persons who are not Members of the Company or otherwise entitled to exercise the rights of Members in relation to General Meetings, to attend and speak at a General Meeting.
- 46. The Chair may, with the consent of a General Meeting and shall if so directed by the Members, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place. Whenever a General Meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same manner as of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, no person shall be entitled to any notice of an adjournment, or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned General Meeting. No business shall be transacted at an adjourned General Meeting other than business that might properly have been transacted at the original meeting had the adjournment not taken place.
- 47. Except where the 2006 Act specifies that a particular Resolution of the Company requires otherwise or as otherwise provided in these Articles, not less than 50% of the Members, whether all the Members of the Company actually attend and vote or not, shall be required, except where these Articles provide otherwise, for the passing of all Resolutions of the Company and for the giving of all consents, approvals or the like considered at a General Meeting.
- 48. A Resolution, which is not a special resolution, to be proposed at a General Meeting may be amended by a vote in favour by the majority of the Members present at the General Meeting (whether in person, by proxy or by duly authorised representative in accordance with these Articles) and entitled to vote on the Resolution if:
- 48.1 notice of the proposed amendment is given to the Company by the Board or a Member entitled to vote on the Resolution at or before the General Meeting at which it is to be proposed and prior to the vote on the Resolution; and

- 48.2 the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the Chair of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the Resolution.
- 49. A Resolution which is a special resolution to be proposed at a General Meeting may be amended by a vote in favour of the majority of the Members present at the General Meeting (whether in person, by proxy or by duly authorised representative in accordance with these Articles) if:
- 49.1 the Chair of the meeting proposes the amendment at the General Meeting at which the Resolution is to be proposed; and
- 49.2 the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the Resolution.
- 50. If the Chair of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a Resolution is out of order or wrongly decides that an amendment to a Resolution is in order, the Chair's error does not invalidate the vote on that Resolution.
- 51. A Resolution put to the vote of a General Meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands, a poll is duly demanded.
- 52. Subject to the provisions of the 2006 Act, a poll may be demanded by:-

- 52.3 at least one Member having the right to vote on the Resolution, and a demand by a person as proxy for a Member shall be the same as a demand by the Member. A poll must be taken immediately and in such manner as the Chair of the meeting directs.
- 53. Unless a poll is duly demanded, a declaration by the Chair that a Resolution has been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost, or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the General Meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the Resolution.
- 54. The demand for a poll may, before the poll is taken, be withdrawn but only with the consent of the Chair and a demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.
- 55. A poll shall be taken as the Chair directs and they may fix a time and place for declaring the result of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the Resolution of the General Meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- 56. A poll demanded on any question shall be taken forthwith. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a General Meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll was demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the General Meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made. No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the General Meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case at least seven (7) clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.

WRITTEN RESOLUTIONS

- 57. A Resolution of the Members or as the case may be the eligible Members (as defined in section 289(1) of the 2006 Act), as provided for in these Articles, may be passed as a written Resolution in accordance with Chapter 2 of Part 13 of the 2006 Act by such number of Members as may be equal to or greater than the number of Members required for a Resolution to be passed at a General Meeting and shall be as valid and effective as if it had been passed at a General Meeting duly convened and held. A proposed Written Resolution lapses if it is not passed by the requisite majority of such eligible Members before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the circulation date (as defined in section 290 of the 2006 Act).

VOTES OF MEMBERS

- 58. Subject to any rights or restrictions attached to any Share, every Member present whether in person or by a representative or proxy shall have one vote whether on a show of hands or on a poll. The Chair shall not have a second or casting vote.
- 59. No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the General Meeting or adjourned General Meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the General Meeting shall be valid. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the Chair whose decision on the validity of same shall be final and conclusive.
- 60. Any corporation which is a Member (pursuant to Section 323 of the 2006 Act) or Club may, by Resolution of its directors or other governing body, authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any General Meeting of the Company and the person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same power on behalf of the corporation which they represent as that corporation could exercise if it were an individual Member.
- 61. Proxies may only validly be appointed by a document which:
- 61.1 states the name and address of the Member or Club appointing the proxy;
 - 61.2 identifies the person appointed to be that Member's or Club's proxy and the General Meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;
 - 61.3 is signed by or on behalf of the Member or Club appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the Board may determine; and

- 61.4 is delivered to the Company in accordance with these Articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the General meeting to which they relate.
- 62. Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions. Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting and appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the General Meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.
- 63. The instrument appointing a proxy and any authority under which it is executed may be deposited at the Office or with the Secretary and/or received by the Secretary at any time before the time of the General Meeting for which the proxy is to be used. The Board may treat a facsimile transmission or other electronic copy of an instrument appointing a proxy as a proxy for the purposes of this Article. Any instrument of proxy which is not deposited, delivered or received in a manner so permitted shall be invalid.
- 64. A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a General Meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the Company by or on behalf of that person.
- 65. An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the Secretary a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given. A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.
- 66. The Chair may in their discretion permit the appointment of a proxy other than as provided herein if circumstances arise which prevent a Member attending or being represented at a General Meeting.
- 67. A vote given or poll demanded by proxy or by the duly authorised representative of a Member shall be valid notwithstanding the previous termination of the authority of the person voting or demanding a poll unless notice of such termination was received by the Company at the Office or at such other place at which the instrument of proxy was duly deposited before the commencement of the General Meeting or adjourned General Meeting at which the vote is given or the poll demanded or (in the case of a poll taken otherwise than on the same day as the General Meeting or adjourned General Meeting) the time appointed for taking the poll.
